Class History

On August 27, 1956, a group of 26 Freshmen entered the doors of Highland High School. The members of our class were: Mary Delp, James Draves, Beverly Eggers, Eldon Esser, Joyce Gottschall, Avis Heuer, Janet Hoernke, Marsha Hooks, Sharon Hooks, John Poppe, Judy Rech, Mary Richter, Pat Roum, Judie Rowland, Donald Shiefel, Lyle Smelzer, Lloyd Schwingle, Gary Sippola, Karen Sippola, Norman Tomas, Virgil Tomas, Melva Sommerville, Larry Weissenburger, Marita Wolfe, Sarah Williams, and Joanne Yager.

The first big event of our high school days was initiation. It was quite an ordeal but we all lived through it. During our second semester we lost Marsha Hooks and Judy Rech. The year ended quietly with a picnic on the school grounds for everyone.

The summer passed quickly and when we came back to school in the fall, we found that we had a new classmate, Dolores Faull. During our second semester we lost Don Schiefel and gained Merle Damon. Our School Year ended with a picnic near Highland.

School resumed again in August and we found that we had lost Gary Sippola and Larry Weissenburger. The highlight of our Junior year was the Prom with Merle Damon reigning as King and Dolores Faull as Queen. Our theme was "All Of A Sudden My Heart Sings." Music was furnished by Armond Huseboe and his orchestra. Our year ended quietly.

During the summer, we were all saddened by the death of our beloved classmate, Lyle Smelzer, who drowned while on a vacation in Northern Wisconsin.

When we came back to school for our last year, we found that we had lost Karen Sippola and Melva Sommerville. On September 25 we held our fair, with Lloyd Schwingle and Judie Rowland as King and Queen. Our Class Play is being planned for early spring.

We have all enjoyed our high school days and are truly thankful for them.

Class Prophecy

May 15, 1970

Dear Judie,

I just received your letter and I am very glad to hear that Bill Jr. is over the measles. My music school is still running but I didn't think it would be since I have been away for almost a week. I'm sorry I didn't make it to Highland.

I'm glad to hear that you saw Bev Eggers. I hope she makes a success of the Crystal Ballroom. Remember when we were kids? They used to call it Riverview then.

Oh, I must tell you about my trip! I left last Monday morning on the Earthbound American Pioneer. My first stop was Paris where I was to change rockets to go to New York. Since I had some time to spend between rockets I decided to have my hair styled and cut. The stewardess suggested Do and Di's Beauty Salon. When I got there the beautician was Deloris Faull. I then took the Milwaukee bound Gladiator. We had to stop in New York because our rocket broke down. The mechanic looked familiar. He had on an old brown leather jacket with a faded white eagle on the back. When he turned around I recognized him; it was Butch Damon. He is now a mechanic with the American Rocket Corporation. After I finished talking with him, I called a cab. The driver was Marita Wolfe, owner of the cab company whose motto was: "If you drink, ride with us."

After securing a hotel room I decided to watch Television before dinner. I turned on Lawrence Welk and saw that Joyce Gottschall was starring on his show. As Joyce was singing the "Champagne Waltz," the scenery collapsed and there was Norman Tomas blowing the Champagne bubbles. The announcer said that Norman is an experienced bubble blower. Later on in the evening as I was reading the newspaper, I ran across a picture of Sharon Hooks. The caption said Fran Sanders. I always thought she would make a good Ann Landers. The next morning I arrived in Milwaukee. I had Joanne's phone number so I called her. She asked me to meet her at the National Brewery Association where she is working as a "taster." We had a nice visit and she told me that Mary Lynn Delp is living in Rockford, Illinois and is married to one of our former high school practice teachers. She also told me that Eldon Esser is manager of the Braves. Before leaving Milwaukee, I saw the former Janet Hoernke and her husband. He is a General in the Army, and from what Janet told me they're raising an army of their own.

I was then called to Washington to direct a concert which was a command performance for Madame President of the United States, Sarah A. Williams, and the members of her cabinet. The only ones I knew were Secretary of Agriculture, John Poppe, the Head Accountant of the Treasury, Pat Roum, and, of course, Sarah.

On the way back to the moon, I read in a magazine that Lloyd Swingle is President of the Indianapolis Speedway Association. His occupation fits him; he always did drive fast. I also read that Virgil Tomas has invented a new type of automobile horn. It goes "Hip, Hip" instead of "Beep, Beep."

By the way, Judie, did you know that Jim Draves has a gambling Casino here on the moon? It is called the "Dude." He is currently featuring the starlet known as "Miss Lonely Guitar" - the one and only Mary Richter.

That's all the news I know for now. Do write and tell me all the Highland news.

Love,

Anis

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1960, of Highland High School, city of Highland, county of Iowa, and state of Wisconsin, being sound of mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

Mary Delp wills her neat locker to Shirley Ruzicka.
Jim Draves wills his slick hair styles to David Orshall.
Butch Damon leaves his cute smile to Rodney Gottschall.
Bev Eggers wills her ability to sleep in class to Miss Harty.
Eldon Esser wills his Donald Duck voice to Eddie Imhoff.
Dolores Faull leaves her quiet ways to Pat King.
Joyce Gottschall wills her love for Madison to Gary Sippola.
Avis Heuer wills her musical ability to Tom Riley.
Janet Hoernke wills her soldier sweethearts to Gloria Seiling.
Sharon Hooks wills her speaking talents to Mr. Mehl.
John Poppe and Lloyd Schwingle will their farming ability to the Junior boys.
Mary Richter wills her love for books to Marcella Rowe.
Pat Roum wills his Saturday night parties to Willy Winkers.
Judie Rowland leaves her tardiness to Ronald Gottschall.
Normie Tomas wills his basketball grip to Jerry Gentz.
Virgil Tomas wills his gum to Mr. Donohue.
Sarah Williams wills her holey shoes to anyone that needs them.
Marita Wolfe leaves her old blue chevy to Beth Bock.
Joanne Yager wills her nights at Riverview to Richard Berg.

To the faculty, we leave the engraved tables, broken chairs, and gray hair.

To the Juniors, we leave our torn books.

To the Sophomores, we leave our report cards and absent slips.

To the Freshmen, we leave nothing, because we have nothing left to give.
